SCHOOL BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD

Oh give me a school by the side of the road,
Where the young of the world race by,
Where laughter reigns and teachers goad,
And students respond with a sigh.

A place in the world where the young are kings
And they rule with a merry glee
Where strife and worry are unheard of things—
Where we embark upon Life's sea.

Here stands a school by the side of the road—
Where the great and the small go by;
Yet they pause for a while and ease their load—
While they look with a dampness of eye.

For to them it's not a house of brick
Or wood, but a place where they learned
To be great when small and laugh at the lick
Life gives when their back is turned.

—Phoebe Shockley.

DEDICATION

To one whose life reflects the glory of our traditions—to a man whose actions have spun the golden threads which he has woven into the pattern of his sterling character—to one who has shared the richness of his life with many and who is bound to Waynesville High School by the ties of many friendships—to the man who has served this school with distinction as superintendent —to one who is responsible in no small way for the success of our school—to a man whose faithful service is equalled only by his achievements—to the man whose very name adds to the prestige of our school—to Mr. Clark D. Stutler this 1941 TIGE is respectfully and thoughtfully dedicated as a symbol of our appreciation of his services and as a token of our affection.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Members of the Board of Education are elected by the district for three-year terms. Although they seldom come in contact with the students, the above six public-spirited men are largely the policy determining branch of the school. As busy as these men are, they still find time to give generously of both their time and resources for the betterment of Waynesville High School. In addition to their activities as the policy determining body of the school, the Board is also important because it serves as the direct contact between the state and the school. The Board receives no remuneration for its services.

The duties and responsibilities of the Board are many and varied, but they discharge them all with the same efficiency. Probably one of the most important duties of the Board is the election of the faculty. Only by our appreciation of their efforts to make W. H. S. a better school can we repay the debt which we owe them.

Arlo Brown served as secretary to the Board in addition to his duties as superviser of the study hall.

Another class has departed, leaving behind their joys and sorrows of former years, to seek whatever happiness and success the world has to offer them. Some go to teach others younger and less educated than they, to show them the path, which, as they have learned through experience, leads to contentment. Others leave to enter institutions of higher learning and, thus, to attain the peak of their chosen careers.

The Senior Class graduates with thirty-six in number. This class will be remembered for its outstanding records during the four years in high school both in music, forensics, softball, and volleyball. Its members have helped to win fifteen trophies in the above activities. The class gives praise to their co-sponsors, Miss Niedner and Mr. Nelson, for helping them to achieve their success this past year.

Hearken, all ye freshmen! As an example for the rest of your high school careers, you may well use the Juniors of '40,-'41.

We have no greatest achievement. They are all great. The juniors are outstanding in athletics, music, and forensics.

They succeeded in electing their candidate, Maxine Ballew, as Carnival Queen.

They have business as well as dramatic ability as was proved by the financial and dramatic success of the junior play.

The only thing we are willing to concede to fellow students is the seniors' ability to take advantage of leap year.

Composed of thirty-two members, the Sophomore Class of Waynesville High shows definite promise for helping the school rate superior in extra-curricular activities in the future.

So far they have had representatives from their class in forensics, sports, and musical events. Among them are Jeanetta Ballew, Lilly Allen, Anneliese Hoboy, Dale Church, Alex Williams, and several others who have been active in county contests and activities.

Keep up the pace, sophomores; we shall depend on your achievements for future victories in honor of dear old Waynesville High School.

FORT LEONARD WOOD

Not one, but many, were watchmen who stood
On guard for protection at Fort Leonard Wood.
Not hundreds, but thousands, were the watchmen who came
To build a new city of international fame.
Not with scores, but with hundreds, were the offices filled
By both men and women, of talent and skill.
From every direction her highway is filled
With cars by the thousands of all make and build
By mechanical monsters her trees are plowed down,
Hills made into valleys, ravines made level ground.
She shines forth in darkness by many a light,
Prolonging the daytime, dispelling the night.
Like mushrooms, so quickly, her buildings arise
That one can't believe it, however he tries.
And through her vast stretches, the water starts flowing,
Through pipes and through plundering, the extent no one knowing.
The news she gets daily by press, radio, and we're
Of the Axis, sad failure as it sinks in the mire,
Not thousands, but millions, does the total sum spell
Of the dollars expended through K. N. W. L.
In building a city, of international fame
To help defend Democracy, put Dictators to shame,
And soon will this city be known far and near
For its thousands in uniform whom we all love and fear.
And may God in His heaven look down and here see
A city effective in setting men free.

Waynesville High School might be called "the melting pot of the Ozarks" this past school term because students from far and near have come here to srhool to seek knowledge. Throughout all the school activities the freshmen have shown as much sportsmanship as could be asked.

In our freshman class there are those who will continue their education making names for themselves. We shall be sorry to see any of our members drop from the ranks.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Once in our lifetime we are allowed to peek into the future. As we stand on the bank of life's great adventure we pause, and with privileged eyes, we get a glimpse of life to come, life for which we have made the pattern in our four years of high school.

Oh, there is something forming in the globe. It grows clearer—there—a black haired girl. What is she doing? Oh, yes, singing. Well, well, if she isn't Esther Anderson in a third rate horse opera singing "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

Mary Ellen Brumley's gift of gab has brought her fame in the law profession. Her ability to talk faster, longer, and harder than anyone else has made her a noted criminal lawyer.

We see the Waynesville Theater with a black-eyed, black-haired ticket seller. It's none other than Betty Truitt who has been promoted from usher.

Dorothy Kilborn is operating a kindergarten for the little tots.

A short, sweet-faced lady, Della Bales, emerges from a trailer where she is staying to be near Camp Robinson and Jake Wilson who has finally worked up a buck private in the army.

Woodie Andres is enjoying the life of a bachelor. His hobby is gardening, with petunias as a specialty.

Many a choice tidbit of gossip is exchanged by Bonnie Sparks Lawton and Wanda Nickels, nee Ferguson, over the fence of their adjoining ten acres on the Roubidoux.

Jackie Bales has gone to Hawaii to teach the natives to "hula."

That sweet "Number please?" that comes gently over the wire to your ears is none other than the voice of Wilma Tyler, the voice with the smile.

Loretta Logan's oratorical powers have made her the greatest woman speaker of all time. We see her holding forth in that August body, the United States Senate.

Well, well, if is isn't Kenneth Sifers clad in his cap and gown and carrying—do my eyes deceive me—no, it's really a diploma.

Milton Jensen's scientific ability has made him famous all over the country. His latest contribution is his discovery of angel worms that supply the needed vitamin QRS to the human voice.

Next we see Ruby (Knock 'em Down) Roach being penalized for uncalled-for roughness in the Hooker Wildcats versus Buzzard Roost Owls game.

Virgil Jennings has broken the world's record in the mile race, and is planning to retire and sell Fuller brushes because he can.

The rolling acres of a beautiful, well-kept farm looms in the nebulous distance and as it grows clearer James Harlan leaps from the vision with a "Hey, keep away from my goats."

Alvin York is replacing the old screen favorite Fred Astaire in the new picture, "Stamp, Stamp, Stamp!" (P. S. He can sing, too.)

Amid "waa-wa-aa" and "Where's my shirt?" we detect Georgia Jones scurrying about, preparing lunch for six little Millers.

Vernita Evans has given up married life to take up ballet dancing.

The homec department of a large city school system comes to our attention. The instructor, who is known far and wide for her efficiency and ability to get things done in record time, is none other than our own Dorothy Fancher.

Jimmie Dodds and Mavis Hammock make the ideal couple and are raising five little Dodds. Who would have thought it?

Oscar Wilson is just recovering from a slight injury received in the Indianapolis races in which he participated for the eighth time.

Lewis (Red) Bridges is a ring salesman for senior graduates. He specializes in the correct technique of holding girls' hands when measuring them.

Joe Crumley is selling a flea powder he discovered when treating his scalp.

Who is this lovely lady in white who walks so calmly down the quiet corridors? It's Donna Rollins, head nurse of a New York hospital.

Harvey Nickels' ship finally came in when he sold his patent for manufacturing stink bombs to the U. S. Department of Munitions.

Alice Ramsey, the belle of Arkansas, won her third beauty contest there this year.

Lucille Roam is teaching the a b c's to the offspring of former classmates.

Judy Adams Dunlap is traveling over the country with Mac's Caravan, telling fortunes.

Bill Wall is the home town boy who made good. His occupation is training fleas for his own little circus.

There is one of our fair group in whom we are especially interested. She was phophesied to make her home town famous, and, sure enough, she has done so. Phoebe Shockley is now in Hollywood reading the script for Walt Disney's Donald Duck.

Last, but not least, two stooped figures, Niedner and Nelson, hobble out the front door of the school house. They have never been the same since the class of '41.

Stay! Wait a moment! It's gone now. No! There is another. Someone in a hospital. No, it can't be. Yes, it is—Frances Cochran. She is recovering from a sad accident. Her eyes became crossed when she rolled them at a lieutenant who was in the drug store.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

The Waynesville Tigers finished the basketball season with eleven games won and nineteen games lost. The team entered four tournaments: Competition, Waynesville, Crocker, and Lebanon. The boys won two beautiful trophies which were tournament consolation trophies.

The second team also enjoyed a fine season, climaxed by winning a trophy for first in the County League Tourney.

A most successful season is anticipated for the next year. Coach Nelson has accomplished much in building up a fine team.

BOYS' SOFTBALL

The Waynesville Tigers enjoyed a highly successful season from the standpoint of games won, though at the League Tourney they lost out in the second round when Bloodland upset them by a rousing 4-1 defeat.

Winning five of seven games played, the boys showed exceptional ability throughout the season.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

The girls' volleyball team has finished another successful year by taking the county league and also the county tournament. This is the fourth year for many of the girls and the third year they have played under the coaching of Mr. Robert Brownfield. This year the team should have special mention for placing in the Bois D'Arc tournament. Some of the best teams in the state were entered. After driving over 100 miles and playing all day the Tigerettes won second place. This is only one of their many victories. In the last four years the Tigerettes have only played two teams that they have not at sometime beaten. Though several members of the team will graduate, next year will see Waynesville still making a place for itself in girls' athletics.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The Waynesville Tigerettes completed their second consecutive softball season without a defeat by taking the county tourney at Bloodland on October 11th. Smooth headwork, good fielding, timely hitting, and aggressive base running with great strength in pitching and catching have carried the team to victory. The team wanted to win and did.

The girls elected Wanda Ferguson as captain for the year. Wanda Ferguson, Jackie Bales, Donna Rollins, Ruby Roach, Bonnie Sparks, Phoebe Shockley, Georgia Jones, and Della Bales will be lost by graduation.

Second Row: Irene Anderson, Betty Lou Gray, Lucy Kirchner, Oscar Ichord-Merrill Hicks, Doris Woods.

TONETTE BAND

These tonette players are beginning high school band members. They learn the fundamentals of blowing a horn from this simple instrument and also learn to feel rhythm. Later it will be much easier for them to play a horn in the advanced band.

ACTIVITIES

TIGE QUEEN

Loretta Logan was chosen to reign as the TIGE Queen for '41. Known to all for her personality and winning smile, she is one of the most popular students in school. Loretta is also a top ranking student in grades. The students of W. H. S. feel that she was rightfully chosen and wish her the best of luck!

CARNIVAL QUEEN

'Mid showers of confetti and cheers of welcome, Miss Jeanetta Ballew crowned her successor, Miss Maxine Ballew, queen of love and beauty.

The queen's attendants were: Lilly Alien, sophomore; Betty Groover, senior; and Mary Shukers, freshman.

Maxine and Betty provided excitement in their race for the throne, Miss Groover leading the first night and Miss Ballew catching up and passing her the second night.

Maxine, with her calm beauty and regal bearing, reigns with exceptional grace. May Waynesville High School be fortunate enough to always have such a queen.

First Row: Miss Niedner, Naya Chase, Norma Clark, Alice Ramsey, Wilma Tyler.

Second Row: Phoebe Shockley, Mary Ellen Brumley, Lewis Bridges, Bonnie Sparks, Joye Hamilton, Woddie Andres, Frances Cochran, Betty Truitt.

THE TIGER RAG STAFF

The Tiger Rag staff for 1941 was chosen by the sponsor, Miss Niedner. Its members were elected according to their ability for news work.

The students tried several new ideas in the paper which increased its favor among the students. The advertising work was done especially well, due to its efficient managing and the attractive layouts.

First Row: Esther Anderson, Jackie Bales, Betty Truitt, Donna Rollins, Wilma Tyler.

Second Row: Frances Cochran, Bonnie Sparks, James Dodds, Mary Ellen Brumley, Phoebe Shockley.

THE TIGE STAFF

The 1941 TIGE staff has attempted to present in their annual publication a clear cut and unbiased picture of student life at Waynesville High School during the past year. An attempt has been made to make the annual a memory book, to be looked at in future years with fond reminiscences. Having striven to make this book interesting and hoping that t has succeeded, the staff presents to you, Student Body, its finished product, THE 1941 TIGE.

FORENSICS

The forensic meet held at Richland on March first was a memorable occasion for Waynesville High. All the participants made a very good showing proving their ability to speak and act. A list of the entrants and their placements is as follows:

Girls' Dramatic Reading—Phoebe Shockley—Second

Girls' Humorous Reading—Bonnie Sparks—Second

Poetry Reading—Maxine Ballew—Third

Boys' Humorous Reading—Jack Bowen—Second

PEP CLUB

After struggling for years and years to organize, the Waynesville Pep Club has finally come into existence. At the beginning of the year the Girls' Glee Club met and organized a pep squad. They elected the following officers:

President .....Wilma Tyler
Vice-president .....Maxine Ballew
Secretary-treasurer .....Anneliese Hoboy
Cheerleaders .....Bonnie Sparks
Phoebe Shockley, Nancy Pippin

The girls wear white sweat shirts and dark skirts with pep emblems on the sweaters. They lead the yells, songs, and other pep activities at the basketball, softball, and volleyball games. Always active and energetic, the squad has more than once cheered lagging spirits of the players.

Miss Ahmann and Miss Nelson helped to organize the group by giving suggestions as to appropriate yells and demeanor at games.

First Row: Wanda Ferguson, Phoebe Shockley, Frances Cochran, Dorothy Fancher, Esther Anderson.

Second Row: Bonnie Sparks, James Harlan, James Dodds, Woodie Andres, Mary Ellen Brumley.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class displayed unusual dramatic talent in their play, "Tempest and Sunshine". The scene was a southern plantation with Aunt Judy (Bonnie Sparks), Uncle Luce (Bob Boulware), and Ambrosia (Dorothy Fancher) acting as the typical negro comic characters. Tempest (Mary Ellen Brumley) and Sunshine (Phoebe Shockley) interpreted their parts with real dramatic ability. All of the cast did exceptionally well.

Not included in the picture: Donna Rollins and Robert Boulware.

Members of Cast: Robert Hale, Lawrence Little, Maxine Ballew, Darthy Bowen, J. T. Strayhorn, Lorene Bartlett, Velma Threlkeld, Norma Clark, George Hamilton, Virgie Cain.

JUNIOR PLAY

On March 27th and 28th the Junior Class of '41 presented their play which proved to be a great success. It was entitled "Bubbling Over" and was directed by Mrs. Redfearn. The cast of characters was very aptly chosen with Darthy Bowen and Maxine Ballew playing the typical college coeds opposite problem-possessed Lawrence Little and Robert Hale. George Hamilton's dignified bearing deserved special comment, and Lorene Bartlett and J. C. Strayhorn made the most charming couple imaginable. The specialty numbers were very clever and amusing.

First Row: Miss Brenner, Marie Long, Josephine Hief, Collette Jackson, Mildred Eagles, Donna Lea Church, Delpha Sanders, Velma Lowman, Bernadine Bartlett, Donna Rollins.

Second Row: Mary Kirchner, Joye Hamilton, Georgia Jones, Phoebe Shockley, Della Mae Schwartz, Lucille Lamkins, Wanda Lamkins, Mable Pearson, Margaret Long.

Third Row: Jeanetta Ballew, Jackie Bales, Betty Kirkman, Lilly Allen, Geraldine Barnes, Anneliese Hoboy, Naya Chase.

HOME ECONOMICS

This is the third year of home-making for Waynesville High School. In this course, the girls receive training in the development of their personalities. They learn to adapt themselves better to situations from their study of manners, home-decoration, and hygiene.

Some of the girls have turned out to be excellent little cooks; others have made dresses, coats, or blouses of which they are justly proud.

Activities in which they engaged to broaden their knowledge and ability to meet problems and situation were: a home project day at Lebanon in November; a tea in October; concessions at school affairs to raise money for new curtains and a chair; a dinner served to the faculty; and a luncheon for a joint meeting of the farm administration.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of farm boys studying vocational agriculture in public high schools. Some of the purposes of the organization are: to develop leadership, courage, and cooperation; to create interest in farm and country life; to promote thrift and scholarship; and to improve the rural home and its surrounding.

Our Motto:

"Learning to do,
Doing to learn;
Earning to live,
Living to serve."
